

RPL READERS' SUMMIT

A Showcase of Saskatchewan Authors

THURSDAY, APRIL 3 – SUNDAY, APRIL 6

Central Library, 2311-12th Avenue

Created to encourage a culture of reading in Regina, this exciting event offers enthusiastic readers a chance to share their love of reading through lively discussion. All events take place at Central Library, in downtown Regina.

Seating is limited. Call 306.777.6120 to register.

A Mystery Reading in Honour of the Saskatchewan Book Awards

THURSDAY April 3: 7:00 - 8:30 pm
(For adults)

2nd Level Mezzanine

Watch for the mystery reader's identity to be announced on March 12th!

Yann Martel: What is Stephen Harper Reading?

FRIDAY April 4: 7:30 - 8:30 pm
(For ages 19 and over)

2nd Level Mezzanine

Seating is limited. Doors open at 7:00 pm.
(ID may be requested.)

Dianne Warren: Cool Water

SATURDAY April 5: 11:00 am - Noon
(For teens and adults)

Program Meeting Room 1

Alice Kuipers:

40 Things I Want to Tell You

SATURDAY April 5: 1:00 - 2:00 pm
(For teens and adults)

Program Meeting Room 1

Yann Martel: Beatrice & Virgil

SATURDAY April 5: 3:00 - 4:00 pm
(For teens and adults)

Program Meeting Room 1

Annette Bower:

Woman of Substance

SUNDAY April 6: 1:00 - 2:00 pm
(For teens and adults)

Program Meeting Room 1

Gail Bowen: The Gifted

SUNDAY April 6: 3:00 - 4:00 pm
(For teens and adults)

Program Meeting Room 1

